WRIT PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 226 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Presence :

ORAL ORDER
(26.11.2007)

SUNIL KUMAR SINHA, J.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the petitioner was appointed as a Panchayat Karmi on 20.7.1998 and he was working on the said post till February, 2007, but by an oral order of termination, the services of the petitioner have been terminated by respondent No.3, which is not in accordance with law.

On being pointedly asked from learned counsel for the petitioner that whether any statutory remedy has been availed by the petitioner or not ?, he submits that no statutory remedy has been availed by the petitioner though representations have been given to the Collector as well as the C.E.O. etc.

In view of this, I am not inclined to admit this petition.

The petition is disposed of at this stage. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to avail the statutory remedy before the concerned authority in accordance with the Panchayat Act and the Rules framed thereunder.
